Cadet N. A. McCully has returned to the Naval Academy.

Postmaster Webb has received a supply of the new postal cards. Corn is plentiful, and bacon is cheap.

Our people ought to be happy. Muscadines are being offered for sale on the streets at ten cents a gallon. Next Monday is Salesday. A large crowd will perhaps be in the city. Ex-Judge R. B. Carpenter spent last Saturday and Sunday in Anderson.

Nearly three hundred bales of cotton were sold in the city last Saturday. The New York Cash Store presents a new advertisement this week. Read it.

Anderson will be well represented at the State Fair in Columbia next month. Grange No. 71 will meet in this city on to-morrow (Friday) morning, at 10

Cotton, on Wednesday was quoted as follows: middling, 82; good middling, The County Treasurer's office opens to-

The eclipse of the moon last Thursday morning was witnessed by a number of Court opens next Monday. All the jurors and witnesses should be on hand with some very large potatoes, for which

H. G. Scudday, Esq., attended Court at Pickens last week and assisted in the defense of a murder case. The watermelons have not all disappeared. Occasionally we see a few offered for sale on the streets. A Bible reading and song service will be held in the Methodist Church next Sunday night, at 8 o'clock. Rev. John M. Lander, of Williamston, preached in the Methodist Church of this city last Sunday morning and evening.

Persons indebted to Dr. A. C. Strickland will find their accounts in the hands of J. C. Whitfield, Esq. See advertise-

Persons indebted to the estate of Dr. W. Or Brown, deceased, should read the advertisement of the Executrix in another column.

Col. Geo. W. Wagener, of Charleston, has been spending several days in the city. His host of friends in Anderson are always glad to see him in our midst. Persons indebted to S. T. Craig & Co.

should read their advertisement in another column. They mean what they state that he meant no personal reflection on Mr. R. P. Clinkscales, in the article place in the hearts of the Pioneers. published in the INTELLIGENCER two

There will be no preaching in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday, as the pastor, Dr. Frierson, will be absent attending Presbytery, which is in session at

The new advertisement of Hill Bros. should be read by every farmer. In addition to their other goods, they have just received a large lot of blue stone and several varieties of grass seed.

Mr. J. A. Daniels is giving away a printed list of valuable United States coins. Call and get one and compare all your coins with this list. Some of these coins will sell for fancy prices. Married; on Tuesday, the 29th instant, in this City, at the residence of the offici-

Murray, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W.

We are requested to announce that Rev. J. A. Mundy, of Greenville, will preach in the Baptist Church at Belton next Sunday morning and evening. Dr. Manly, the pastor of that Church, will be ab-

Dr. A. C. Strickland has gone to Nashville, Tenn., where he will spend the Winter in completing his course in the study of dentistry. He will attend the Den tal Department of Vanderbilt University. We wish him a pleasant sojourn and a safe return home.

to his friends and relatives. Be sure to read the new advertisement It is worth your time to visit their estab. lishment and see their beautiful goods.

The following young gentlemen have been elected officers of the Cadet corps of the Anderson Military School: Captain, F. C. DuPre; 1st Lieutenant, M. M. Mattison; 2nd Lieutenant, V. I. Masters; 3rd Lieutenant, W. C. Humphreys; 1st Sergeant, J. W. Bell; 2nd Sergeant, Percy the whole neighborhood.

An excursion train will be run from Ninety Six to Pendleton and return on Thursday, 8th inst., so as to enable everybody to attend the Stock Exhibition. The train will leave Ninety Six at 7 a. m., arriving at Pendleton at 10 a. m. The fare will be four cents per mile for the

We were pleased to receive a call last Saturday from Mr. Jas. R. Moorhead, a former resident of Anderson, but now a citizen of Ocala, Fia. Mr. Moorhead left Anderson nearly two years ago, and this is his first visit to his old home. He expresses himself as being highly pleased with his adopted home, and from his appearance we judge the climate agrees with him. He showed us some very large bananas, green oranges, lemons and ribbon cane, all of which were grown at Ocala.

Township, and there interred. Rev. J. W. Wolling, assisted by Rev. John Attaway, conducting the funeral services.

Miss Mary M. Waller, an accomplished and highly esteemed maiden lady, died at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Rosa Webb, on Monday morning, the 28th of September, after an illness of about one whether he shot once or twice; Moore whether he shot once or twice; Moore was not more than 20 or 30 feet from him. He showed us some very large bananas, green oranges, lemons and ribbon cane, all of which were grown at Ocala.

her usual stock of pretty goods, which she is offering at very low prices. She will be pleased to show her goods, and guarantees satisfaction to every purchaser.

"Now, darling, will you grant me one favor before I go?" 'Yes, George, I will." she said, drooping her eye-lashes and getting her lips in shape. "What is the favor I can grant you !" "Only a little song at the piano, love. I am afraid there is a dog outside waiting for me, and by the finding of the dead body of Mr. I want to scare him away."

Invitations are out for the Firemen's Ball, which takes place at Moore's Rink to-morrow (Friday) evening. An Italian band will furnish music for the occasion. The invitations are very handsome and stylish. The Ball promises to be a brilliant affair, and a pleasant time is in store for those who indulge in the merry

Mr. William Wolling, while engaged in a friendly wrestle with a companion last Thursday evening, had the small bone of his left leg, near the ankle, fractured. Since then he has been confined to his room, and has suffered considerable pain. His injury, however, will not prove serious, and he will soon be up

Orr & Sloan have an ingeniously arranged advertisement in our columns this week, and it deserves a careful perusal from each and every one of our readers. When you read it, think over it and see if you don't need something mentionday for the collection of taxes: Pay up ed therein. If you do, then give them a call and see how cheap they will sell it to > quest us to return their thanks to Mrs. loaned them. Also to Prof. M. L. Willis for his valuable assistance, and to the general public for their generous patron-

Miss Lucia Norris, of Antreville, Abbe ville County, has accepted a position as assistant teacher in the Bowman, Ga., High School. Miss Lucia is a graduate of Jacksonville College, Virginia, and is an highly accomplished young lady. The citizens of Bowman could not have secured a more efficient teacher in their

Fork, has sent us some very fine apples, which were grown in his orchard. They were the equal in size and flavor of any apples we have ever seen from the mountains. Mr. White is a live, progressive funeral service, conducted by Rev. Charles farmer, and takes great pride in keeping | Manly, D. D., in the presence of an imup his orchard. Thanks for the treat,

The Augusta Chronicle says that Mr Geo. D. Wadley, who has had charge of track-laying on the Spartanburg & Laurens Railroad, will commence work on the Savannah Valley Railroad immediately, and expects to complete it inside of eleven months. Mr. Wadley is superin-

Mr. Columbus Wardlaw requests us to generous act, and Mr. Klettner may rest peared for trial upon the first chargeassured that he will always have a warm | that of fighting with pistols and disturb-of the largest stocks of goods they have ever shown in this market. In another the charge, he would be compelled to dispeak during the affair.

An organization of the Y. M. C. A. was effected on Sunday last at the Lutheran Turner, a five-year old son of Mrs. Mary | Church, in Fork Township, with twenty-E. Crawford, died at the residence of his two members. On next Sunday at 11 mother, in Broadway Township, last o'clock Mr. Scudday proposes to again Sunday night, from miningetis, after a submit the object and aims of the Association with a view of completing the organization. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to be present.

The case Had the Mayor refused to the largest stocks of goods they have an advertisement, where the charge, he would be compelled to dispeak during the affair. column they have an advertisement, which should be read by every person

Rev. W. W. Duncan, D. D., of Spartan- this trial, knowing that the public will Rev. W. Duncan, D. D., or Spartan-burg, will preach in the Methodist Church of this city on Sunday, 10th inst., at 11 a. City Council m. and 8 p. m. In the afternoon of the same day, at 4 o'clock, a Sunday School Celebration will be held, and Dr. Duncan Sept. at the disturbance; saw Mr. Mur-lint, but is full of seed. He says the stalk on which it grew is like the other town; no particular business brought me stalks in the field, and that it bore eight to town; had been coming for about 3 weeks; was not one of the confidential bolls, all of which were like the one shown us. Several old farmers say they never saw such a production before. Mr. McAlister says he will save some of the seed and plant them next year.

John M. McConnell's stock of Fall and Winter goods has arrived, and his store is check full of as pretty a line of dry goods, millinery, hats, boots, shoes, notions &c., as can be found anywhere. He is deteras can be found anywhere. He is deternined to sell them, and if people want Watson's, facing the street; this was Mr. L. D. Goodwin, of Athens, Ga., pent last week in Anderson visiting relatives, and on Friday paid his respects to the INTELLIGENCER. Mr. Goodwin is a perspectation of the best quality of goods and guarantees satisfaction to every purchaser. Look Watson's, lacing the street; this was nearly on the opposite side of the square from Maj. Murray; heard Mr. Tolly tell Fant to stop that man; heard Murray also say stop; Mr. Tolly was at Hill's Drug Store, about 25 or 30 steps from Murray; I was about twice as far from Murray in the opposite side of the square from Maj. Murray is the opposite side of the square from Maj. Murray is the opposite side of the square from Maj. Murray is the opposite side of the square from Maj. Murray is the opposite side of the square from Maj. Murray is the opposite side of the square from Maj. Murray is the opposite side of the square from Maj. Murray is the opposite side of the square from Maj. Murray is the opposite side of the square from Maj. Murray is the opposite side of the square from Maj. Murray is the opposite side of the square from Maj. Murray is the opposite side of the square from Maj. Murray is the opposite side of the square from Murray is the opposite side of the square from Maj. Murray is the opposite side of the square fr spent last week in Anderson visiting rel- selves of the first opportunity to visit his atives, and on Friday paid his respects to establishment. He handles nothing but the INTELLIGENCER. Mr. Goodwin is a the best quality of goods and guarantees very pleasant gentleman, and his visit to satisfaction to every purchaser. Look Anderson was a source of much pleasure out next week for his new advertisement.

Mrs. Frances Duckworth, the estimable wife of Mr. W. R. Duckworth, died at her pure curiosity; don't know whether borne in Honewell Township on last Sat- Moore had his pistol in his hand; I was of John M. Hubbard & Bro. They have home in Hopewell Township on last Satlaid in a very large stock of jewelry, urday afternoon, after an illness of about watches, &c., for the Fall trade, and are three weeks from fever, aged about fifty- an inch at the butt; as Moore went across offering every article at a very low price. six years. Mrs. Duckworth had been for many years a consistent member of Hope- he was going at a pretty brisk walk; did well Baptist Church, and her remains were interred in the graveyard of that Tolly called to stop; saw the pistols that Church last Sunday afternoon, Rev. D. day; don't know about their relative the 15th Sept. arrested Maj. Moore; am not aware of the fact that Maj. Murray was W. Hiott conducting the funeral services, in the presence of a large number of sorrowing friends and relatives. She leaves a husband and eleven children to mourn her death, which has cast a gloom over the life in the death, which has cast a gloom over the life in the

Mr. James B. Pegg, an aged and respectable citizen, died at his residence in this city last Saturday morning, after a very painful illness of several months. He was about 74 years old, and was one about that time and blew his whistle and He was about 74 years old, and was one among the oldest citizens of Anderson.

He was well known throughout the County, and the announcement of his death will be read with regret by all of his friends. He was a member of the Methon throughout the County and the announcement of his death will be read with regret by all of his pistol at Mr. Murray and Mr. distance; Moore advanced, bearing to the light that time allow his whistle and the whist was snapped at; I did advance on Moore with the intention of arresting him; Maj. Moore fired his pistol at Maj. Murray fired immediately afterwards: two shots were fired on each side from a distance; Moore advanced, bearing to the light that time and to whist white and the wints was snapped at; I did advance on Moore with the intention of arresting him; Maj. Moore fired his pistol at Maj. Murray is distance; Moore advanced, bearing to the light that time and the wints was snapped at; I did advance on Moore with the intention of arresting him; Maj. Moore fired his pistol at Maj. Murray is man; called 2 or 3 times; did not see with the intention of arresting him; Maj. Moore fired his pistol at Maj. Murray is man; called 2 or 3 times; did not see with the intention of arresting him; Maj. Moore fired his pistol at Maj. Murray is man; called 2 or 3 times; did not see with the intention of arresting him; Maj. Moore fired his pistol at Maj. Murray is man; called 2 or 3 times; did not see with the intention of arresting him; Maj. Moore fired his pistol at Maj. Moore fired his pistol at Maj. Moore fired his pistol at Maj. Murray is man; called 2 or 3 times; did not see with the intention of arresting him; Maj. Moore fired his pistol at Maj. Moore fi fare will be four cents per mile for the round trip.

List of letters remaining in the Post-office for the week ending September 30: Willie Beal, Wm. A. Benson, W. C. Brown, Samuel Bolt, John Cox, D. D. Gentry, G. E. Green, H. D. Leak, Sindy Lomax, Cathrin McKarlin, George Waller, Rey. F. J. Washington, Jess Willer, Rey. F. J. Washington, Jess Williams, J. M. Williford.

Maj. Moore and got to within 5 or 6 feet of him; at that time Maj. Moore present-dof his of him; at that time Maj. Moore present-dof his of him; at that time Maj. Moore present-dof his min; at that time Maj. Moore and got to within 5 or 6 feet of him; at that time Maj. Moore and got to within 5 or 6 feet of him; at that time Maj. Moore and got to within 5 or 6 feet of him; at that time Maj. Moore and got to within 5 or 6 feet of him; at that time Maj. Moore and got to within 5 or 6 feet of him; at that time Maj. Moore advanced, bearing to the distance; Moore advanced, bearing to the of him; at that time Maj. Moore and got to within 5 or 6 feet of him; at that time Maj. Moore advanced, bearing to the of him; at that time Maj. Moore advanced, bearing to the of him; at that time Maj. Moore advanced, bearing to the of him; at that time Maj. Moore advanced, bearing to the of him; at that time Maj. Moore advanced, bearing to the of him; at that time Maj. Moore advanced, bearing to the of him; at that time Maj. Moore advanced, bearing to the of him; at that time Maj. Moore advanced, bearing to the of him; at that time Maj. Moore advanced, hearing to the of him; at that time Maj. Moore advanced, hearing to the of him; at that time Maj. Moore advanced, hearing to the of him; at that time Maj. Moore advanced, hearing to the of him; at that time Maj. Moore advanced, hearing to the of him; at that time Maj. Moore advance, are not more free distance; Moore advanced, at he same time distance; Moore advanced, at he same time do his office; Moore kept advancing and both with two or three seconds he find. Maj. Moore advanced, at he same time do his fired; Moore

Church, and was one of the most active in the small band of ladies who founded Grace Church in this City. Her remains were interred in the Presbyterian Cemetery in this City on Tuesday morning, after the burial service of the Episcopal Church was read by the Rev. T. F. Gadsden in the Presbyterian Church, where a large number of the relatives and friends of the deceased gathered to pay this last

Considerable excitement was occasioned in the usually quiet town of Pendleton Thos. Fredericks on one of the principal streets of that town last Friday morning Coroner Nance was immediately notified of the occurrence, and he went to Pendleton and held an inquest over the deceased. After carefully examining the facts in regard to the death, the jury of inquest rendered a verdict that the deceased died suddenly from apoplexy or heart diseaso. From the testimony adduced, it seems that Mr. Fredericks, who was an inebriate, had been in town the preceding day and night, and had been drinking excessively. He was seen lon the streets of the town Thursday night about 12 o'clock, in an that he was going to a friend's house to short distance down the street from where he was last seen alive. There were n dence, in Broadaway Township, in this Shot; there was a difference between the County, on last Saturday morning, the reports; don't remember which one I shot there was a difference between the reports; don't remember which one I heard first. 26th of September, from bleeding at the tonsils, the result of an attack of paor three years ago. His physician, Dr. J. O. Wilhite, had foretold him of the in order to delay the fatal hour, and when the bleeding began on Friday, Mr. Geer recognized the fact that his end was at hand, and conversed most quietly and beautifully upon the subject. Mr. Geer was born February 11, 1823, and was therefore in the sixty-third year of his age. He joined the Baptist Church in Alabama, in 1846, and at the time of his death, had served as a Deacon in the skirmishing around pretty lively. I could Our good friend D. Sloan White, of the leaves a wife and ten grown children with many relatives and friends, who mourn his death. On Sunday morning his remains were interred in the Belton Cememense congregation.

Moore and Mr. E. B. Murray, citing them ing the peace. At the conclusion of the testimony against him, introduced by the Council, his Attorneys moved to have the case dismissed, on the ground that the stated that the case was a very grave one. miss the case. Had the Mayor refused this motion the defense had quite a num-in this city, at the residence of the officiation will be held, and Dr. Duncal ating, minister, Rev. J. S. Murray, Mr. will deliver an address. The visit of this ray; saw Mr. Murray on the street; saw him, as Mr. Murray on Murray, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W.

A. King, of Varennes Township, died on Tuesday evening, aged about one year.
The parents have the sympathies of a host of friends in their bereavement.

many admirers here.

Mr. J. N. McAlister, of Corner Township, has left at our office a curiosity in the firing then commenced; both fired; don't know who fired first; occurrence did not disturb me: occurred between which is about the usual size, contains no the row of trees and Hill's Drug Store. Cross Examined: Lives 1 3-4 miles from advisers of Mr. Moore; was at Mr. Moore's office that morning; thinks Mr. Clinkscales and some countryman were there; thinks it was Elgin; witness was looking for the difficulty and predicted it from the start: was not here as a friend by virtue of any consultation with Mr. Moore on his friends; is not related to Mr. Moore; when the shooting commenced was about 40 yards to Maj. Moore's left, and about 60 or 65 yards from Maj. Murto his left, the pistol in his right; Moore had a stick in his left hand about 3-4 of the street his right hand was stationary not hear a police whistle; don't know that Moore increased his pace after Mr.

> size; could not tell from their reports.
> (Signed) L. L. GILLIARD. James M. Payne: Was present on the office; saw Moore start from his office in a fast walk; Murray walked on until he Rev. J. other way; they kept shooting, and Mur- his office; Moore ray) went to fire he stepped back one or two steps; saw the pistols in the hands of the parties; Maj. Mooro's was the largest; could tell from seeing them and from their reports; don't know their re-32 and 38 calibre Smith & Wesson pistol; I had rather have the largest calibre in Murray or Moore speak during the whole 50 or 60 feet; I was nearer to Murray than any one on my side of the street did not hear Murray previous to the firing call out to Moore to stop.

(Signed) JAMES M. PAYNE.

J. O. Wilhite: Saw part of the difficulty on the 15th of September between Maj. Moore and Maj. Murray; I was in front of Orr, McGee & Orr's bullding; saw Maj. Moore start from his office; I watched him a minute of the same which direction has JAMES M. PAYNE. or two, to see which direction he was going in; I then turned around and standing; I went in the store, and about the time I got in the firing began; I came out and got about half way between my store and Hill's store when the last shot was fired; don't know who fired the first in-law. (Signed) J. O. WILHITE.

J. N. Vandiver: Saw the difficulty between Maj. Moore and Maj. Murray on the 15th of September; was standing in the door of the Court House, next to Brick Range; my attention was attracted by some noise on the several Authors. Brick Range; my attention was attracted by some noise on the square; I turned and looked out on the square; as I did so heard the report of a pistol, followed im-mediately by another report; saw from the parties just at that time, that if I walked out on the square I would be in skirmishing around pretty lively; I could not give the exact positions of the men; as Murray fired his last shot he was near the corner of the sidewalk, on the side erably stooped; Murray stepped back from one to three paces at each fire; Murray seemed to me to be acting entirely on the defensive. Redirect.—From the reports of the pis-tols after the first fire, I discovered that Moore's pistol made the loudest report.

(Signed) J. N. VANDIVER. J. L. Glenn: Saw the difficulty on the 15th Sept.; was standing with Mr. Fant and Smith, at the old Post Office, facing South; saw Maj. Moore as he was about following morning, to answer first, the Simpson's store and saw Maj. Murray; he Mr. Samuel Maverick, who resided for was standing about midway the street, between Simpson's and Hill's, when I public peace, and second, for carrying the direction of Murray; kept looking at owner in the State, and during his long should read their advertisement in another column. They mean what they say, therefore pay up and save costs.

The foll of Company "F," 2nd S. C.

Riffes has been printed and is now ready for delivery. By calling on the Local and the local and their advertisement in another column. They mean what they system of roads.

In acknowledging receipt of an invitation to the Firemen's Ball, Mr. O. Klettener, and one of the clever-est drummers that travels, has forward-for delivery. By calling on the Local and their advertisement in another carrying the direction of Murray; kept looking at hour Col. J. N. Brown and Capt. A. T. Broyles, counsel for Maj. Moore, appeared before the Mayor and entered the plea of guilty upon each charge against him. Maj. Moore then fired the first shot; then fired the first shot; then fired the first shot; then furray fired; then they kept up the Cross Ex.—During the firing Mr. Murray evidence showed that Mr. Murray acted throughout in self-defense. Mayor Tolly stepped back one or two steps; can't say that he stepped back after every fire; Mr. Murray kept his face towards Mr. Moore all the while; this is what I mean by retreating; Mr. Murray was acting on the defensive; and if there had been any evidence to show that Mr. Murray had acted otherwise than strictly in self-defense, he would have found him guilty and let him aphave found him guil peal to the Council to sift the evidence, after he fired his shots out; don't know

P. K. McCully : Saw the difficulty on who wants to buy honest goods at low prices. When in the city, call and see them and examine their stock of dry goods, boots, shoes, hats, groceries, &c. It will pay you.

ber of prominent citizens who were witnesses of the difficulty to be sworn. As so many rumors have gained currency about this matter, we publish below a certified copy of the evidence taken at the latter of the Weynery House of the State of the Island Murray; was on the corner in front of Hill Bros. Store when the difficulty commenced; saw Maj. Moore sitting in front of his office; had been there but a short while when I saw Maj. Murray coming down the soon as Moore saw Murray, he left his seat he had advanced a short distance, I saw him throw his hand back on his hip; at that time, the Mayor blew his whistle; the Chief of Police started across the square to intercept Maj. Moore; the whistle was blown twice; Mayor called to the Chief to be quick and stop "him," or "it," I don't remember which; Maj. Murray had stop-ped about that time; Maj. Moore was still to intercept him, when Maj. Moore presented his pistol at Mr. Murray; it did not shoot—seemed to snap; then the firing commenced, Maj. Moore firing first, and Maj. Murray firing immediately afterwards; there was but little difference between the shots; Maj. Moore then advanced firing, and Maj. Murray stepped back firing; Maj. Murray fired all his shots, then snapped it and went in the direction of his office; Maj. Moore continued to fire, firing one shot after Maj. Murray started in the direction of his office; the arrests then took place.

Cross Ex.—It looked from the manner in which Moore advanced that he was about Maj. Murray did not draw his pistol sooner not shoot sooner than a prudent man committed any act calculated to disturb the peace that was not done in self-defence; have never seen either pistol; can't say which had the largest pistol. Redirect-Can't say that Mr. Murray could have avoided the difficulty; did not Murray than Tolly was; at the time I heard Murray speak I had got out into the square, and within about 60 yards of him; I advanced to see the affair, out of that time; he (Mr. Murray) seemed to think that he was size to be straight to the law of the square of the squ that time; he (Mr. Murray) seemed to think that he was going to be attacked; I thought so, too, and so did the Mayor; Maj. Murray stood perfectly still; the place he selected seemed well chosen as being one in which less danger to the citizens might insue; think it was safer for Mr. Murray to have faced Maj. Moore than to have

> J. R. FANT: Am Chief of Police; on arrested; saw the difficulty; saw Maj. Moore advancing across the square; saw Maj. Murray standing on Main Street to the left of a tree; he was standing with his right hand on his hip; Maj. Moore was advancing, raised a revolver from his side and snapped it at Maj. Murray; I looked at Maj. Murray; he had one presented at Maj. Moore, made no effort to take hold of Maj. Moore; when Moore snapped his pistol knew that that meant for the other side to take care of himself; knew or single selection the rendition of which about the place he fired his last shot; had a stick in his left hand all the time; Murray had no stick or anything else in his hand; saw no letter in Murray's hand at the time of the shooting; saw him have one a short time after, directed to Mrs. Murray, at Pendleton; it might have been in his hand; I did not see it; when I first saw Murray he was going in a course of about right angles to the way Maj. Moore was advancing; if Murray had gone on he would have been in no position to defend himself in case of attack; his back would have been to Moore; thinks that every time he (Murray) went to fire he stepped back one or two steps; saw the pistols in the hands of fifty dollars. Maj. Moore upon the con-Mr. Murray upon the concealed weapon case, a fine of twenty-five dollars.

Maj. Moore upon the first case, a fine heard some talk that will be of interest to A. M. Hamilton says he has one-fifth of next to Simpson's Drug Store; he stepped back one or two steps and presented his pistol at Moore twice, then turned and started down the sidewalk towards his started down the sidewalk towards his he says his second crop will reach 150 pounds, making in all 350 pounds from Cross Ex.—From the report of the pistol the larger pistol was fired first; Moore advanced in a fast walk, and was considered.

Street, and was immediately arrested.

One-fifth of an acre. He says his patch will be worth $75.00. This would reach street. far to talk about.

Death of Mrs. Lydla A. M. VanWyck. A telegram received at this place on Lydia A. M. VanWyck in the city of Brooklyn on Friday evening, 25th inst., in the 72nd year of her age. Mrs. Vanmany years near old Pendleton. He was at the time of his death the largest landas to that; then he (Murray) advanced and shot and then turned up towards Simpson's Drug Store; the last shot I saw Murray make was just as he got in the center of Main street; Moore fired the last Brooklyn, Saratoga and other fashionable watering places.

Her friends and acquaintances in this County and City are numerous, and are greatly grieved at her death. The only immediate members of her family residrated by the good people of this section. The plan, as a ready means of meeting a special want of the congregation in the repair of their church building, was a suggestion of Miss Maggie Graham, the accomplished teacher at Deanville, to whom the pastor and congregation express themselves greatly indebted for her untiring efforts to render the occasion what it really was-a complete affair in itself.

The Good Hope Concert. MR. EDITOR: Dark Corner is on the

For the success of the first feature, to wit, the Festival, the ladies of the community needed but a hint: for from noonto sundown they served a dinner of meats, oysters, coffee, breads and cakes which deserved the compliment which the assembled crowd paid it by consuming what they could and carrying home some dozen or more elegantly dressed cakes which were auctioned off at fair prices by Mr. J. A. McAlister.

At 7.30 p. m. the doors of the church delightful transition from the loaded tables on the green to a brilliantly illuminated hall, at one end of which a temporary stage had been erected, well nigh perfected in its arrangement. Professor Willis had been chosen to conduct the Concert, and the happy manner in which each of the participants performed his or her parts is itself a deserving tribute to his merit as an instructor of music. He was fortunate enough to secure the support of Mrs. L. A. McSmith, of the Ludden & Bates Music House at Anderson, who kindly consented to be present and rendered invaluable assistance. The programme was made up of the best selections, made with due reference to the nature of the occasion, and avoiding either extreme of being too secular or too sacred, afforded to the large and attentive crowd please you. a most refined and elevating entertainment in the way of solos, songs by the told me to use every effort to put down any such thing, but not to endanger my life; the Mayor as well as the Police was on the street all the time; I had no information to the effect that Murray would.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,
COUNTY OF ANDERSON.
I, Frank C. Whitner, Clerk and Treasurer of the City Council of the City of Anderson, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing ten pages is a true copy of the testimony taken at the trial of City Council, vs. E. B. Murray, charged with "fighting with pistols on the public square in the City of Anderson, S. C., on the 15th day of September, 1885, and thereby disturbing the peace of said City." Made and certified to b yorder of the City Council.

Witness my hand and seal of the corporation of [SKAL] the said City of Anderson, this 25th day of September, 1885.

On Monday morning Mr. Murray plead guilty of carrying a concealed weapon giving as his reason therefor, that he expected to be attacked, but did not know when, where nor how, and that he did not wish to carry the weapon exposed out of deference to appearances. Mayor Tolly then imposed the following sen

We give the facts above without com-

Tobacco Culture MAJORS, S. C., Sept. 25, 1885.

Respectfully,

W. W. MARTIN.

boom. But lately her people gathered to and near at thewitness the closing exercises of one of her flourishing schools under the admirable management of Miss Ellie Reid. Because the selection is large and the prices lower than ANYWHERE ELSE. Shortly afterwards there followed a soldiers' re-union, at which eloquence and festivity added zest to the pleasures of that occasion; and last, but not least, the Church Festival and Sacred Concert at Good Hope on last Thursday afternoon and night constitute another event marked by that happy success which seems to characterize all festive occasions inaugubuilding were thrown open, and it was a

It is really to be regretted that occasions like this, so full of pleasure and so refintions. Several of the pieces brought down the house, but there was scarcely a

PERFECTLY SATISFACTORY

Invites the attention of his Friends and Customers to the Magnificent Display

cealed weapon case, a fine of twenty-five dollars. FINE DRY GOODS,

MILLINERY, CARPETS, SHOES, CLOTHING,

IN HIS NEW STORE,

THE PRIDE AND BEAUTY OF ANDERSON.

A Grand Spectacle, never seen before in this portion of the State!

An Immense Stock at immensely Low Prices.

REMEMBER,

That we have moved, and now occupy B. F. CRAYTON & SONS OLD STAND, adjoining the

THE NATIONAL BANK of ANDERSON.

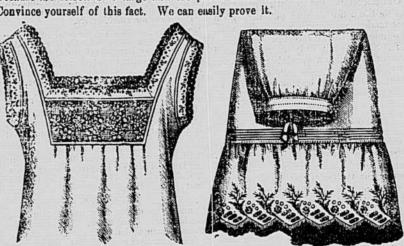

for delivery. By calling on the Local ed to Capt. O'Donnell five hundred ci-Editor, the survivors may secure a copy. gars as a gift to the Pioneers. This is a John E. Breazeale and E. W. Long, ap-for great vivacity and cheerfulness, and a full enjoyment of all the pleasures of so- Puzzle, why we sell so cheap, is easily solved: BECAUSE WE KNOW HOW cial life. She was well known and appre- TO BUY CHEAP. Thoroughly acquainted with New York, thoroughly posted ciated in society circles in New York, the whole year around on Goods and Prices, buying in large quantities for three large Stores, we receive and offer advantages such as no one else can. OUR PRICES TELL! And we are never afraid to quote them in plain figures to the world! THEY ARE BEYOND COMPETITION! Just look at the lot:

Splendid Shirtings at 25 yards for one dollar. The best Shirtings at 20 yards for one dollar. Athens Checks at 14 yards for one dollar. Prints-a good enough quality-at 25 yards for one dollar.

Our aim is to sell and save you money! A splendid Ladies Stocking we will sell for only 5c a pair. Whoever heard of Sheeting-24 yards wide-for only 15c a yard? We have it, but its real value is 25c. Better come early. Such bargains cannot last long. People trade from far

NEW YORK CASH STORE

Convince yourself of this fact. We can easily prove it.

We have placed Up Stairs, in charge of an experienced Sales-Lady, a full line of LADIES' UNDERWEAR at popular New York prices. Please look at these Another bargain in the shape of a COESET! 500 fresh and clean Corsets at only 35c each, far superior to any 50c Corset in this market. We will sell you 100 pieces of Fruit of Loom at 7½c.

The best Bleaching made at only 7½c.

Why should you pay others 10c for it?

The success of our business is firmly built upon the rock of LOW PRICES.

Nothing can shake or move us. Who wants CANTON FLANNELS? 5c a yard will buy a fair quality. Better Goods equally low. Just think of that for a moment! How cheap! Yes, but still cheaper are our JEANS and WOOL FLANNELS. They will astonish, astound and amaze you! Do come and look at them! Everybody asks a quarter for Jeans that we sell at 20c right along. And Flannels! You can keep warm for 15c all Winter. It's so!

STAMP OUR PRICES ON YOUR MEMORY

We have everything in the way of Table Damasks and Towels, Shawls and Skirts, Blankets and Cassimeres at the Lowest possible Prices. You don't want any Goods cheaper than we sell them ! Our fine 50c Black Cashmere is the town talk! The quality is matchless!

Our new style Nigger-head Dress Goods are the latest and popular. Our Black and Colored Silks compare with New York price. Our Velvets and Plushes, our stylish Cloaks, Wraps, Circulars and Newmarkets, our fine Pattern Hats and Millinery, our Lace Curtains and Draperies, our Dress Trimmings and Buttons -- in fact,

Our fine Flannel Dress Goods are unsurpassed in quality and price!

OUR ENTIRE STOCK OF NOVELTIES Elicits the admiration of every Lady of taste! Thanks! We shall always try to

> You will also find our Stock of Corsets Up Stairs, where Lady attendants will gladly show the different kinds, which are most popular-such as Ball's Health Preserving, Madame Dean's Spinal Supporting, the Celebrated Juno, and French Woven Corset-all at Low Prices.

LOOK AT OUR JERSEYS!

DON"T buy elsewhere until you see our

Sept 10, 1885

If you don't want to come to us first No. 10 Granite Row The ONLY CORSET made that can be returned by and make out your bill with us, at least the purchaser after three weeks' wear if not found in every respect, and its price refunded by seller. Goods and prices. Made in a variety of styles and prices. Beware of worthless imitations. None genuine without Isali's We Are Next to the Bank. FOR SALE BY NEW YORK CASH STORE.

LARGE ational

B00 Sho CITY. Hat

M

Clothing,

House

FOR

LOWEST

In Domestics, Dress Goods, Jeans, Notions, Gloves, Hosiery, Laces, Velveteens and Silk Velvets, Silks, Satins, Ribbons, Corsets, Quilts, Towels, Table Covers, Cloaks, Dolmans, Circulars, New Markets, Jerseys, Saques, Jackets, Havelocks, Hoods, Carpets, Rugs, Boots, Shoes, Clothing, Trunks and Valises,

GO TO

A. LESSER,

Granite Row, Anderson, S. C.

HILL, ADAMS & CO.

On account of our rapidly increasing Business, we have REMOVED!

On Granite Row,

(FORMERLY OCCUPIED BY J. P. REED,) WHICH we have had refitted especially to suit our business. We are receiving daily one of the LARGEST and HANDSOMEST lines of—

DRY GOODS.

Ever in the City. We also carry a FULL LINE of-CENERAL MERCHANDISE.

If you want BARGAINS come and see us

AT THE RED STORE ON GRANITE ROW.

HILL, ADAMS & CO.

FANCY GOODS. THE LADIES who have favored us with a visit this season pronounce our DRY GOODS, SHOES, MILLINERY and NOTIONS the Cheapest and Handsomest selection they have ever seen in Anderson. Our Stock of MILLINERY is larger than ever, consisting of the choicest Goods from the best manufacturers. We will sell Hats, Tips, Plumes, Flowers and Trimmings for less than any other house in the city.

THE MILLINERY DEPARTMENT Is precided over by MISS BERTA WOOD, of Baltimore, a first-class Milliner in every SHOES and SLIPPERS.—I make a specialty of Fine Shoes for Ladies, Men and Children. Shoes for everybody. In fact, I can supply you with EVERYTHING you want in Dry Goods, Millinery, Shoes, Fancy Goods, and everything found in a first-class Dry Goods Store, and invite you to call and see my Stock—rich and poor, white and colored. Thanking the public for their liberal patronage in the past, I promise to continue selling at the very lowest prices. Most respectfully,

JOHN M. McCONNELL, No. 4 Waverly House

SPRING AND SUMMER GOODS.

Now in Store and to arrive a A FULL STOCK OF GENERAL MERCHANDISE, STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, GROCERIES. HATS AND CAPS. CLOTHING, BOOTS AND SHOES.

HAREWARE, SADDLES AND BRIDLES, CROCKERY AND GLASS WARE, ONE WORD MORE: Bacon, Lard, Corn, Sugar, Coffee, Molasses, &c. ALL of which I will sell LOW for Cash or Barter. Give me a call before buying, at

MERCHANT TAILOR. SURGEON DENTIST,

ANDERSON, S. C.

OFFICE—Up Stairs, over HILL BROS,
Drug Store.

OFFICE—Up Stairs, over HILL BROS,
Drug Store. the latest and most approved styles.

W. F. BARR.

A. P. JOHNSTONE. J. B. CLARK,

moved from Depot Street to a much larger and better Store Room